QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

This lady lost her husband three months ago. She found working out the answers to many of the questions difficult. Her husband had been fit and well able to cope with the financial matters right up until his death so that she could not ~~not~~ answer many questions applying to the earlier part of the year - and it would obviously have distressed her if the matter was pursued. She <sup>was</sup> also very hazy about past events anyway. I don't know whether you require details of annual income at this case - since there is no information coded for the husband throughout the questionnaire. However if it is of use to you - the couple drew a joint retirement pension. The lady didn't know the exact amount - but it may have been £6 = 10 = 0. ~~With~~ <sup>With</sup> "£2 something" included, a in addition (?) for herself. They also drew Supplementary Benefit. amount unknown - not more certainly than the 18/- she now draws. It paid the rest of 10/-/week and a few odd jobs. The husband drew no pension from his employment.
