QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

First contact with this family was with C-W-E. He was unable to give an interview but agreed that I should return when his wife was at home. I returned by appointment & saw the wife but her husband stayed away from the interview in another room. After answering the questionnaire the wife went to ask the husband if he would see me, & she told me that he refused to see me. The wife then went through the questionnaire with me again very quickly & gave me any information she could about husband's pay etc. Unfortunately details she could give were pretty scanty & I could not persuade her to let me see her husband or to have another try herself at getting him to try the questionnaire.
