QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

I have failed to see husband in this house, and it was by no means easy to interview wife, who is obviously not very bright, rather frightened of husband. V. over-crowded house - 2 beds for 6 of them - they also 'live' in the kitchen because "the floor in the front is boards, & I couldn't stand the noise the kids feet made". The kitchen is about 9' x 6', contains a small table, 2 chairs, & a shelf holding a 23" television set. I tried to imagine where they sat for meals, etc. but failed! Wife tried to answer what she could, but income etc. she said she didn't know. I thought this was probably the truth. The 4½ yr old was at home the first time I went, was alternately drinking pop from a bottle and kicking the table - no sign of toy or book in the house. It's a pity I didn't get the income as I felt that possibly it was quite large - husband gets up for tea, goes out to see to his pigeons, straight to the Labour club, & then straight on to work.
