QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

The Inft. is an obsessive gambler - she goes to Bingo every day bar Sundays and any time she can back a horse or dog she does so. She appears to have sold things eg a carpet that her lodger gave her for the stairs, in order to have money for Bingo. The carpet was under £25 and so are all the other things she has sold and that is why they haven't been mentioned. She has to pay train fares into Glasgow - every night she goes to Bingo - and back again. Brd also seems to gamble a lot on the dogs & horses - between that and drink he spends all his average £19 per. week.

One thing that the Social Security should do, is to not put the money into people's pockets - but to pay everything for them instead.
